

JUNIOR TESTER

MIH SWAT is a small group of highly motivated individuals who are passionate about the internet and the way in which it can influence people's lives. If you want to be part of a team that will help define the future of web applications on a global scale, then please send us your CV for consideration.

Position Summary

This is a position for a Junior Tester who should be self-driven to execute tasks with limited supervision. The individual must be experienced in functional, reliability and system integration testing across a variety of platforms. Primary responsibilities will include:

1. Working with software engineers to interpret and thoroughly understand requirements.
2. Prepare test plans
3. Execute test plans

Qualifications and Experience (Essential)

- Minimum of 2 years in-depth experience in black box and white box testing
- Proven experience in writing test plans and test cases
- Ability to track testing results and report metrics to management team
- Strong knowledge of Windows, Linux/Unix, and Mac OS X advantageous
- Moderate SQL skills

Qualifications and Experience (Desirable)

- Experience with agile development methodologies
- Database configuration, administration and design
- Previous experience with load testing tools like WebLoader
- Sys Admin skills for setting up and maintaining development, testing and staging environments.
- Prior experience building or testing Flash, Flex, and/or Air based applications
- Previous programming experience with C++, C#, Java, PhP, Ruby, or other OO languages preferred
- Web development skills (e.g. HTML, CSS, JavaScript, AJAX and etc) preferred
- Advanced knowledge of TCP/IP preferred
- Previous automation experience desirable

Skills and Competencies

- MUST be passionate about the Web.
- Strong attention to detail
- Passionate about defending product quality
- Good written and verbal skills
- Self-motivated with good decision-making abilities
- Strong logical & problem solving skills