

MIH SWAT is a small group of highly motivated individuals who are passionate about the internet and the way in which it can influence people's lives. If you feel you are entrepreneurial and want to be part of a team that will help define the future of web applications on a global scale then please send us your CV for consideration.

MIH SWAT located in Cape Town currently has a vacancy for a PHP Developer, who reporting to the Chief Operating Officer will be responsible for designing, building, testing and deploying PHP applications.

Job Outputs

- Implement software systems according to the accepted technical specifications
- Implement new software and changes according to the accepted technical specifications
- Deliver on new requirements and enhancements to existing systems
- Maintain and enhance existing websites and application.
- Contribute to product innovation
- Potentially visit overseas offices.

Skills and Competencies

- Analytical skills
- Problem solving skills
- Willingness to learn and apply new technologies quickly
- Good time management skills
- Ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines
- Ability to work within a team as well as independently
- Attention to detail

Qualifications and Experience

- A minimum of 5 years programming experience in the relevant fields
- A relevant tertiary qualification is recommended
- Solid understanding of the web and associated interfaces
- Solid understanding of: REST, Web Services, SQL, XML, JavaScript, XHTML, CSS
- UML experience will be advantageous
- Expert knowledge of using relational databases, SQL and an understanding of networks
- Web 2.0 methodologies including AJAX

Other

- A passion for the web, particularly social networking and the long tail
- An ability to contribute to the products being developed
- Experience in Internet startups a bonus.
- Portuguese, Spanish, Chinese, Thai or Russian language skill a bonus.